MASS INTERNET CONNECT PROGRAM

MassHire is partnering with Massachusetts Technology Collaborative to provide internet connectivity and computer devices to MassHire career center customers to help people get back to work. The following assistance is available:

- Free internet through Comcast, Spectrum, or Verizon Wireless (if the service is available at your home)
- A subsidized low-cost laptop through Comcast Internet Essentials OR a free Chromebook for customers without a computer
- Access to free digital education courses on how to use a computer and the internet

Who Can Participate?

- Must be a Massachusetts resident
- Must be a MassHire Franklin Hampshire Career Center customer
- Must be unemployed and seeking work, or
- Unemployed, in training through a Career Center approved program, and seeking work
- For Internet Assistance: Must not have internet service and not able to afford internet service at home
- For Computer Assistance: Must not have a device at home that can be used on a regular basis to conduct job search. (You may be eligible if your sole method of internet access is through a smartphone or a child's computer.)
